

Capability Statement

Why choose Glennie Reporting Services?

Glennie Reporting Services, LLC is a full-service court reporting firm. Although we are based in the Phoenix Metropolitan area, our deposition coverage is nationwide! We have a national network of law firms who call on us to handle their most challenging cases and our local clientele count on our support when they have out-of-town cases. Over 25 years in business and over 100 years of court reporting experience results in a dedicated team that understands individual client needs and the time-sensitive nature of this business.

Comprehensive

Our conference rooms are comfortable and accommodating, even for as many as 15 people! With internet access, video equipment, and a large flat-screen television, our facilities are just what you need for a full day of depositions, court reporting services and subsequent in-house production. We're your one stop shop!

Competitive

Being independently owned has allowed us to keep our rates affordable and cost-effective for you and your clients. Reasonable rates plus high-quality, comprehensive offerings equal competitive reporting services.

Compliant

When submitting bids or engaging in relationships with clients, we strictly abide by the rules for reporters set out by our governing board, managed by the Arizona Supreme Court; fairness to all parties and fully-compliant invoices.
